RESOLUTIONS OF THE SELECTION COMMITTEE FOR NOVA LAW SCHOOL'S THIRD STUDY CYCLE LEADING TO A PHD IN LAW

22nd May 2017

Selection Committee appointed by the Board on 25.05.2013 pursuant to article 5 of the Regulation of Third Cycle Studies Leading to a Phd In Law ("Regulation"):

- Professor Teresa Pizarro Beleza (Chairperson, in her capacity as ECTS Coordinator appointed by the Scientific Board);
- Professor Ana Prata (Member);
- Professor Margarida Lima Rego (Member).

The Committee held a meeting on 17th May 2017 and by subsequent exchange of emails in order to carry out the evaluation of the 1st Phase Applications for the 3rd Study Cycle – PhD Programme in Law, 2017/2018 Edition.

The Committee checked the conformity of the applications and the fulfilment of the admission requirements and listed the candidates of the 1st Phase Applications for the 3rd Study Cycle – PhD Programme in Law in accordance with the criteria defined on the Announcement of 25.01.2017, pursuant to articles 4 and 5 of the Regulation.

The Committee declared the non-conformity of the following applications, because it was apparent from the respective motivation letters that candidates intended to apply to other master's and doctoral courses, rather than to this School's 3rd Study Cycle – PhD Programme in Law:

- Carlos José Maria Jeque;
- Juliana carrinho Borges Silva;
- Kisa Nadica de Sousa Costa.

Compliance with the following requirements was verified in relation to all candidates:

- a) Holders of a master's or equivalent degree;
- b) Holders of an especially relevant academic, scientific or professional curriculum recognised by the Scientific Board as attesting a capacity equivalent to that of holders of a master's degree.

Candidates were selected on the basis of their merit, having regard to the following parameters and respective weight:

- a) Academic curriculum vitae (50%);
- b) Scientific curriculum vitae (publications, other scientific output indicators and proven research experience) (20%);
- c) High Relevant professional curriculum vitae (15%);
- d) English language knowledge (10%);
- e) Motivation letter (5%).

The listing included, amongst those admitted, all the candidates holding a master's degree as well as the candidates which do not hold a master's degree but whose curricula globally reveal equivalent capabilities to those holding a master's degree, in the opinion of this Committee. Non fulfilment of such requirements by one of the candidates gave rise to her exclusion.

The relative positions between the various candidates were the result of our weighing of the above mentioned factors. The candidates who did not submit evidence of the final classifications obtained on a master's or bachelor's degrees or of other weighing factors were placed on the basis of the elements made available to this Committee. We attach hereto a table containing the grades individually attributed to each candidate for each of the five listing criteria, which shall be made available to candidates who so request.

These 1st Phase Applications are meant to fill in 10 places. This Committee has admitted a higher number of candidates, the existing places being filled in by the first 10 candidates on the list and each of the remaining candidates being called to fill in one of those places, or any other that should arise, by order of their appearance on the list, if and when any one of their forerunners should choose not to enroll on the Programme. In the event of a tie between some of the candidates, all such candidates will be called in to enroll simultaneously, the necessary number of extra vacancies being opened for that purpose in accordance with the applicable legal provisions. Candidates admitted but not selected on this 1st Phase Applications shall be automatically listed, together with the new candidates, in the 2nd Phase Applications.

In view of the above, the following is the list and order of the candidates admitted on these 1st Phase Applications to our 3rd Study Cycle – PhD Programme in Law:

1. Alexandre Corrêa de Luca;
2. João Francisco da Silva Diogo;

These resolutions are subject to the prior hearing of the candidates, in accordance with article 5(2) of the Regulation. Candidates may submit their complaints on or before 02.06.2017.

The members of the Selection Committee believe that the following alerts should appear on these minutes, addressed to all candidates admitted on the Programme:

- The admission of candidates holding foreign degrees will be conditioned upon the recognition of such degrees. Candidates holding foreign degrees must provide evidence of their submittal of the request for recognition of foreign degrees. Recognition may be requested at the Rectorate of UNL (contact for information requests: div-academica@unl.pt). Please submit this request as early as possible!

- Before entering Portugal, foreign students should apply to a student visa before a Portuguese diplomatic mission or consular office abroad (if applicable).

- Candidates are advised to conduct a careful reading of the Regulation. We draw their special attention to the possibility that some courses of the taught part of this PhD Programme might be lectured in English, in accordance with article 12(5) of the Regulation. Irrespectively of the language used in oral communication, all doctoral students' freedom to choose the language of their written work will be preserved, their being allowed to submit written work in Portuguese and/or in English.
